SELWYN HOUSE GRIEVES

I dedicate this message, on behalf of the entire Selwyn community, to the memory of two of the school's most influential and respected faculty members.

First, Mr. Edgar C. Moodye, or Moo as he was known here, is one of the school's legends. In his career at Selwyn House (1949-1974), as a teacher of mathematics, a coach, superb organizer, school historian, supporter and wit, his contributions were of exceptional value.

I feel fortunate to have visited Mr. Moodye in hospital during his last period there and to have been reminded of what he meant to our community. He was alert, full of amusing observations, reminiscences and insights. These will be my lasting impressions of a great teacher and friend of the school.

Second, Dr. Byron Harker has done as much as anyone as teacher of English and later as Department Head to maintain and promote a focus on academic excellence at Selwyn House.

In all he did - in the classroom, directing a play, or preparing a Remembrance Day assembly - Byron Harker set the very highest standards for himself and his students. He had a passion for thoroughness and excellence, and it manifested itself in all his endeavours.

Some of the most generous comments we receive from graduates are the ones expressing their gratitude for their having learned how to do research papers and how to marshal their thoughts effectively in writing. In these skills, they report being extremely well prepared for post secondary work. Much of their praise is directed at the English department and Byron Harker, its head.

The contributions of Edgar Moodye and Byron Harker are hugely appreciated and long will be remembered.

Edgar Moodye (1909—1999)

Byron Harker (1943—1999)

BEST OF LUCK!

Pat Patterson gives new meaning to the old concept of retiring. After 26 years of teaching, she has no plans to remove herself completely from the profession that has given her so much joy. "I'm not counting the days to leaving. I don't have that attitude," she said. "I still love the profession and the children." Dedicated, meticulous and active are words often used to describe her. They also describe well her long and busy career.

Born Marguerite Patricia Edwards in Arvida, Quebec (now Jonquière), she moved to Montreal with her parents, two brothers and one sister where she finished high school at Beaconsfield. She did her post secondary education exclusively at McGill University where she got her B.Ed., her Certificate for Special Ed. as well as her M.Ed. in Educational Administration.

Pat first started teaching with the PSBGM where she stayed eight years. From there she took a job at ECS, taking a one-year leave of absence after nine years to teach with the East York Board in Toronto. Returning in 1990, Pat decided it was time for yet another change and accepted a position at Selwyn House starting in September of that year. "I had the distinct advantage of having met some of the Selwyn staff already through Selwyn and ECS TGIF wine and cheese parties and golf tournaments," said Pat. "I won the prize for the longest drive at one Selwyn golf tournament, much to consternation of the men that were there!"

In nine years, Pat has amassed many more memories including "Greek Week" in the early summer of 1999. "We all dressed in togas and had an official ceremony in front of City Hall. After, we returned to the dining hall where parents, in appropriate dress, served a lunch that we ate with our hands while sitting on the floor."

Memories are also abundant for Pat's colleagues.

"Pat was always extremely easy to deal with and very supportive of the Athletic Department," said Coach M. Maurovich whose sentiments were echoed by Roman Pylat, Head of Elementary English who said, "Pat greatly respected by her colleagues for her love of children, teaching and books, and for the warm support she gave to each individual student." "I will miss her daily presence," added Anne Marie Snabl, long-time friend and colleague.

Over the years, Pat has taught Grade 5 and 7 English, Grade 4 math, tennis as a winter sports option, and accompanied the Elementary School choirs. The one consistent has been her Grade 3 homeroom, and she will miss it dearly. "Not seeing the boys on a regular basis will be hard, as will not seeing the staff, one of the most dedicated that I have ever worked with."

Fortunately for us all, Pat hopes to return. "I would like to do substitutions at Selwyn," she said. "I simply want enough time to be able to pursue my own interests," and of those Pat has always had plenty.

She is an avid golfer, skis both downhill and cross-country, plays tennis, bikes, sails, sews her own clothes, and loves to cook, especially desserts. Traveling is also a passion and Pat plans to do more. She shares her many interests with husband Brian whom she met when both worked the finish line of the YMCA Spring Race ten years ago. Pat's other aspirations include several courses on finances and investments.

We wish you all the best and look forward to working with you soon!

This year, the ninetieth of Selwyn House School, the yearbook was charged with the task of documenting the year's events. From triumphs in sports like rugby and curling to our continued successes in robotics, you will find it all here, contained in these 176 pages. We were faced with some new challenges this year, trying to cope with the largest graduating class in the school's history while producing a leaner, well-crafted publication. Some changes you may notice in this year's book are the section divider pages drawn by Ms. Pinchuk's art class, which provide some artistic flair, as well as new comedic features.

Returning veterans this year were Matt Osten, Alex San Gregorio, Colin McKenzie and editor Seth Ross. Junior Editor Pablo Durana performed admirably under pressure as did his successor Tyam Shell-Schnitzer. This was the first year that grade nine students were allowed to choose yearbook as their arts option, a development that we hope will lead to more experienced staffs and quality books in the future.

We would like to express our gratitude to Miss Tratt and Mr. Bedard for long hours, weekend workshops, guidance, and patience.

Well, after five years in the same place, same environment, around the same people, it's finally over. I entered this school when I was only 12 years old, leaving a school where I was the oldest, and entering a school where I was once again the youngest. It was a new beginning for me, and now it came to an end. Even though I had such a considerable amount of work over the years, I had some fun times. All the boys at our table, CP, RH, DN, CM, LB, and JN, we had some crazy times this year. CP, we had some good times since grade seven. RH and DN, even though you guys came in only last year, we had some funny times too. I'd also like to thank my family, for keeping up with me throughout all these years. Paul, sorry for all the tough times I gave you. Kathi, thanks for all you have done for me and for your interest and care that I will always have a good time (especially at my graduation). Ma, thanks for all you did for me. I know I act like I don't appreciate it but I actually do very much. And especially I'd like to thank my Dad for doing almost everything for me. You were always there when I needed you. Most of all, thanks for pushing me to do my best. I now understand why. A thank you is not enough to compensate you for what you've done. I'm not saying I want to go, but if you have to go, go with a smile.

I'm writing this with jaded eyes and well-merited nostalgia, listening to U2 and feeling awfully reminiscent. God, there have been so many quoteworthy events. There was Halifax and seven players, rafting and a close brush with death, recess soccer when you're really ON, east party -- wow did I have fun organizing that!, no-look Chicago -- oh s#@!%, spring balls, grads, this year's truly emotional and inspiring rugby season and the historic LCC vs. Selwyn final -- remember it, baby!!!! It was more the people than anything; sharing with a handful of guys experiences that if you tried to explain them would only detract from their meaning. Selwyn has meant so much to me. At a time when there was so little to really care about I could always say that word Selwyn with pride. It gave me a fiery sense of patriotism that I haven't felt about anything except my love for music and made so many experiences that I count among my defining moments possible. I won't extend a plea for all you reading this to keep in touch. Those of you with whom I've founded irreplaceable friendships know who you are and I am confident that wherever life's journey takes us our roads will cross again. To the rest of you, good luck, stay chilllllll (!), don't disrespect!. Remember Selwyn as your sanctuary in these very tumultuous years. I'll miss it all.

Really and truly I'd like to thank all the people that have been part of my life the last few years: Most of all thanks Mom and Dad for really busting your butts to send me here, Dara for being the best sister and the biggest h8'er, David for kicking my ass while I was down. Thanks to the whole crew: J.A. for being Barth Vader, D.M. for supplying the Hogs, M.O. for sticking the lego in my ear (I never forget), L.P. for coming out so often, C.W. for being nice but not cool, and J.W. for being the best sportman's guildier. Thanks to the Wasps, the clubbers and everyone else in between. Thanks to the Big O and all your boyfriends. Last but definitely not least love to Rich, the coolest guy and greatest cousin anyone could ever ask for. I've had a great time and looking forward to more fun. Of course I'll never forget Mrs. Angell's cookies, Mrs. Vian and her row-row-row, ZAP, Histoire 10-3, Stratford, Rafting trip, great days on the mountain, Guy street chugging, vol-de-Jail back in the day, the many events at Charles' house (kicking Nuss off the bed, my hand made curtain that always let me sleep, and the days chilling with twitch. Of course I'll never forget this place, and as Richie always says "If I'm not back in fifteen minutes call the SPCA." Love to all who love me. I hope I didn't bore you.

At some point over the past five years, when I obviously wasn't looking, Selwyn House shaped me into the person I see before me. As much as I want to move on to bigger and better places, it would be dishonest to say that my years here have not been some of the most influential of my life. I have to thank my family, my parents especially, for disregarding my flaws and enabling me to succeed in so many ways. To my sister, Tyler, you're a brilliant girl, hahe, not to mention a great friend. To all the boys at school, you know who you are, we've come a long way together and the party has only just begun. Paul, thanks for all the good times. Nelly Kite, my soul sister, here's to hackin' butts on the porch all night. My apologies to the Zews, the WASPs, and any Gino's I may have offended, but you made for some great laughs. Good luck to the class of 1999 and keep in touch. Peace.

Eleven years ago, I was dragged, sullen and miserable into the Lucas building, uncomfortable in my new uniform and wearing a tie that I felt was like a noose around my neck. I feel much the same way now, being dragged out, a little reluctant to take off the tie. I'm a lifer--what can I say other than that I'll miss it? Oh, well. "All good things," eh? Time to say goodbyes. First of all, I've enjoyed these last three years with you guys in 11C, no matter how many of you (Hint: C.C., T.M., etc.) drove me nuts. Then, of course, to the nine-man fellowship of Mr. Nicoll's table, I propose a toast. I must thank all of my favorite teachers, including the Downeys, McChaine, Mr. Cude, C.B., K.B., T.N., L.P., P.G. and, of course, Mr. Moffat. I wish the best of luck to future Robotics and Debating teams, and the same for soccer and for skiing. Finally, Chris and Sam, you've been my best of friends for what seems like forever (in Chris' case, it has been). I won't forget.

Last week as the boys and me were chillin dans la section, I realized that three years of Selwyn House were finally coming to an end. I turned around and saw how much fun we were all having and realized that none of this would be possible without the aid of my loving parents. Je vous adore Yunes! Zak I luv u guys and I will always be there for u guys. Beside me Rob was trying to pick up some girls by calling himself Vicenzo Vicenze and asking them to touch his pecs. Jonny was sitting in the corner asking the boys if they wanted to go pick up with him. Politis "Dj Enforcer" was taking care that no one come in, and Meguerditch was too busy bumping his nose into walls. Danny couldn't make it because he was in Laval. The W.A.S.P crew came out and we had a good time together. Three years finally came to an end with memories to spare: G.M.A.A champs, B-days parties, taxi sessions with the djays, Marbella, O'Valere, Moracco..... Don't worry boys the best is yet to come. Yunes Zak I luv u guys and I will always be there for u guys.

In the words of my father whom I love: "There's nothing wrong with reality." You've always been there for me for better/WORSE. Calm in the face of excitement, excitement in the face of nothing equilibrium? A wise man with a way to admire and too much knowledge. To my mother just as much love. Molded by experience and suffering. Unconditional honesty, generosity...and almost as hard working as GrandMa Grand Maman je t'aime plus que tu puisse imaginer, je t'admire pour le plus gros coeur au monde et ta famille. PierretteJP, trop chill. Mme. Bouchard, Quebec Love, thanks to my third mother, for everything, mostly for keeping me good as long as you could, I wish our world had never come to an end. Bros, I love you and respect you more than you can understand. Marc, you're the most accomplished pain in the @!#, keep it real, don't change for anyone but yourself. Martin - volume = perfect, be true to yourself, you're the only one out of the three who always knew what was right. Claude you changed my life and are a pillar in who I am. Taught me everything my parents couldn't and showed me what being really cool was maybe one day I'll get there. Cat/Lalie/Ela-Denise, my favourite cousin/sister/aunts, I love you more than I know you, but that's chill, Party On. Peace to all the Selwyn Boys, St-Georges Girls, and other friends. Eric, Phil, Simon: Old School! Finally Alison, my baby, I love you. The most awesome girl/friend, you made/saved my high school experience many times. Te quiero mama, Love and Peace!

Thank you for 11 years. For all the Friday nites, parties, class trips, ski days, everything. For my family, messed up though you may be, for choosing Selwyn. For all of you who aren't mentioned, you should be. For the Cheekens (Justin). For the Lifers. For curling and the curlers. For the teachers who weren't boring, they know who they are (Hey! - TJN, 'Bonus!' - TD). For Art, Ms. Pinchok-may we never agree on anything. For those of you who made my life better: Ned and my backup table, and the art crew. For the Cool Table: Sam; Alright, cable's OK. 'Arrr! Buszard: Curling, 5 years of biking, and the Bad Boyz. Chaz: fellow Jazz Man. Dave: Long live cars and guns. SoChill: Needs no comment. Joshie: Skiing. Hacking, and the Beats, words can't describe what we have. Alex: THE best monitor ever. Phil: Late nite barf club prez. What better friend could I have for the last 9 years?

I love you all. May we never grow apart.

'But why worry about that when all the golden land's ahead of you and all kinds of unforseen events wait lurking to surprise you and make you glad you're alive to see?'

Although this short paragraph doesn't do my five years at Selwyn justice, here are a few things that cannot be left unsaid. Grad, rafting, robotics, senior play, my lunch table and three spring balls are just the beginning of the list of events I hope to remember until the day I forget my own name. Many thanks to my Mom and Dad for your unconditional love, support and hard-earned money. Thanks to Alan for being the best brother and friend anyone could ask for and to Amy for faithfully putting up with both us for your entire life. Julia and Laura, you've been like a second family to me, thank you Julia for your love and invaluable friendship. Chris, thank you for never letting me forget I'm short and I don't care how many debating tournaments you won, you'll never convince me that art is better than science. Eitan, thanks for the laughs, and please stay off the crack. Phil, thanks for letting me sleep over when my parents gave me kerflew. B. Moffat thank you for making learning more of a game than a chore. Thanks to Ms. Biggs for always letting me miss English to work on the robot and thanks to J. Werhiski for letting us speak English in French class. Last but not least, thank you Mopez, MD, TJN, K. Angel, PS and BG for making my stay at Selwyn one I'll never forget.

Sam Carsley

For my next trick, I will weave a web of words into a coherent message for others to remember me by and for me to remember others by. Forget the words. Find the meaning and the words will come. Thanks to Ginette Rochelleau for two years of mutual understanding. Thanks to the English Department. Thanks to Ellen Pinchuk for her eight years of instruction. Thanks to Maria Tratt for all her help. Thanks to the Forum staff for the good times and slacking. Thanks to Tom Nicoll who has probably taught me for more hours and provided me with more of my education than any other teacher. I will thank all the Crews, Matty (Insert one of many inside jokes here), les Filles (for pop-ins, roofs and everything else), Vanessa (for support of late), Ned (Tock Shop and Forum bud), Phil, Jamie, Alexis and Roberto (7 players! Forum Field trips, A-Team) the Prefects (power trips and doing nothing) Mum, Dad, Sarah, Claire and Jake (for putting up with me). Finally I thank everyone I have forgotten to thank and all those who I have thanked but will thank again. It's been a ride. It's over. So it goes.

Then he said, "That is that."

And then he was gone

With a tip of his hat.

I have had a most intriguing education. After being educated at Selwyn House School, I have had many frogs in my throat, incarnated as Vajrasattva, formed my physical body into a lotus and celebrated the source of everything. From purple mangos, to fooling Mme. Allard-Coutu, I have made Selwyn House most interesting. Stories of foot-fetters, and blood jello have kept me entertained. Where else but Selwyn House? As well, I have been successfully educated. Most importantly, I have met a group of unique individuals, who inspire a sense of hope within me. I thank everyone who helped provide for this experience in the myriad of ways that they did. Note this is by no means an advertisement. Yes it is. Whoever is reading this is slowly being influenced to send their next child to this school.

After thirty-three terms, eight critical nights and innumerable exams, it's finally over just before the dawn of a new millennium. Eleven years is a long time! And yet, I don't know whether I should be blissful or morose, since the delights and horrors outside the Selwyn walls are a mystery to me. Next year's going to be like stepping out into the unknown. I'm at one of those crossroads in life, so I guess I have no choice but to take a leap of faith. My time attending this school is saturated with tons of memories: some good and some bad. The trip to Ottawa (grade six), a few camping trips (especially Rouge Riviere), the Robotics competition in Toronto (that we won!) and Grad are some of the enjoyable experiences. I'd like to thank numerous teachers individually. However, due to the word limit, I cannot. So thanks to everyone in the past eleven years who spent time enlightening me. Also, congrats to everyone who's graduating with me and remember to keep in touch! On a final note, I'd like to remark that Selwyn has been similar to an area I once described in a speech as a "hot place".

Christopher Cheung

Enter Christopher Cheung into Selwyn House School.
Dow Jones Industrial Average: Recently broke 2,000.

Eleven years later, June 21, 1999.
Exeunt Christopher Cheung from Selwyn House School.
Dow Jones Industrial Average: Recently broke 10,000.

Eleven years ago, I hadn't the foggiest idea where I would end up, much less the Dow Jones Industrial Average. I could only hope that the eleven years would be a time of consolidation and growth for both. And that means finishing higher and stronger than when we started. Well, the Dow certainly did. I hope I did too. Eleven years has meant much growing and learning, not to mention a heck of a lot of money to be made for the witty investor! Many thanks to all the people here, who have made my stay an enjoyable one - may Fortune wink upon your portfolio.

Olivier Desmarais

Ok, my first grad quote was rejected so here I am giving an unoriginal beginning. Oh ya, I finally graduated after 11 years and I would like to say thanks to my parents for making me work hard. I would also like to thank D.K, C.C, R.F, S.W, J.W, H.B, P.W, M.S, P.S, J.T, OUCH MY HEAD HURTS, A.D, C.M, S.L, G.S, M.B, T.D, J.S, AND most of all M.E! for making my school days more interesting.

Tim Dobby

In the six years I have spent at Selwyn House, any of my successful accomplishments have been the result of much support from teachers, family, and friends. I owe much gratitude to my mom, dad, and sister, as well as numerous teachers: BM, KA, FS, Downey Inc., RN, Jesus, the senior Math department, CR, JP & CC, CB, JMac, and NDT. I would also like to thank all my friends: MB, CC, DC, EY, RF, OD, the lunch table crew, and MG to name a few. I leave Selwyn remembering many important events: Stratford, NY and Boston, Ottawa, and grad. I thank all of the above mentioned people for making these past years the best yet.

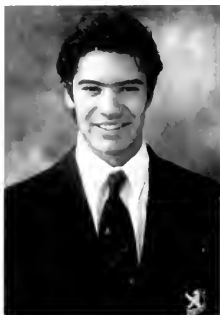

Russell Fraser

So it's already been 5 years. Seems like just yesterday that Mrs. Angell was telling me to sit down and stop baring Algernon. Now it's Mr. Litvack telling us to sit down and do some work. But despite everything the 5 years have been amazing, and that's thanks to the great guys of our grade. At the top, of course, is The Cool Table. Sohil, I wouldn't have passed without your work. Phil, say hello to the rest of the Bobcats for me, will ya? Josh, I'll see you in Nepal (maybe a Bad Boys Reunion? I'll bring the sack). Chris, I do not cuck. Dave, a warning: guns are bad. Sam and Henry, I'm not exactly sure what to say. Thanks for all the great times. And Alex, you are the all time greatest monitor. Ladies and Gentlemen, I give you The Cool Table. And to those people who aren't members, Chris (big head), Olivier (world domination), Matty B. (stogies), and the rest, you guys were great and won't be forgotten. This is the PK, logging off.

Roberto Gomez

It's wonderful, no, not all of it was great. But I definitely had my memorable, fun, even crazy times: recess soccer, intense h-ball, soccer (they were only 7th, skippin' school um, I mean Dr.'s appointments). I couldn't have the memories now if it weren't for a select few... yeah, I've had my fights with some, but hey, it wouldn't be the same without RW (thanks for letting me head so many rules), CR (axis sur les filles françaises), M. Scabb (I used your phone at least 3000 times) and several others. Yeah, I beat the rules as much as I could, when I was caught I deserved it; when was not, YOU did. '96-Paul! All my successes are due to my family, so thank Mom, Dad, Paul- couldn't have done it without you guys. As for my crew, well you guys are great. Phil, keep on practising stupid things at home, Jamie, the numerous years of trading info, Alexis, life's a party man; don't forget!!! The clubs- Aurora, Illinois- and let's not forget to thank the girls who passed through our lives. "I feel just like a local god when I'm with the boys." EVERYONE, good luck, and I'll never forget you guys- you made the school be for us what it was! It's been long and it's time to turn my back, head high, and face reality.

James Govan

I have always seen myself as a Selwyn House student. The Lucas Building has been my chrysalis, from which I now emerge confident, fatigued, and ready for UOED. In my eleven year stay, I've been poked and prodded, strangled then to be set free, stepped on and paraded, punished out of love; but "for what I've just received I give thanks". Amen. I am part of a select group of battle-scarred students known as "Lifers", and indeed it has seemed like a lifetime since I first accepted Veritas. From teachers I've stolen knowledge and everlasting memories, from my peers I've bargained friendship. Poker nights, impromptu clubbing, Birgit's, rafting (A-TEAM), paintball, recess soccer, grad, and those nights we really wanted to party but did nothing - will never be forgotten. Unforgotten are the girls who put me in my place, thanks to M.C., who taught me to love. Alas - family - least recognized contributors to both my success and failure. Thanks goes out to my sisters, trusted confidants who have tolerated strange outbursts, cranky mornings, and depressions alongside elation - they truly know me best (A.G. try to stay out of trouble!). Mom and Dad, through you I was able to discover myself and for that I am forever in debt. I love you both.

Ross Hassani

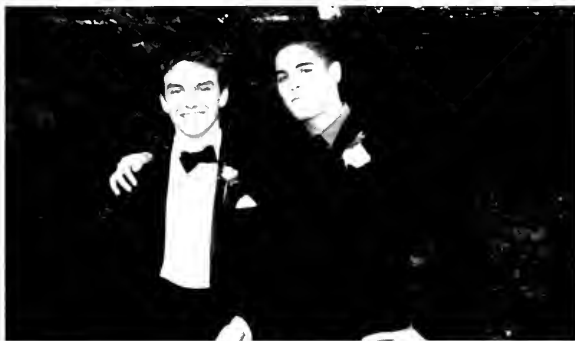

I have only been at Selwyn for 2 years, however I will never forget the memories I have of this place: Homeroom gossip (Nuss), the many soccer-football arguments (You all know which is better), Recess soccer (hip checks), Stratford, Math j-hads (ethnic alliance vs Wasps), Histoire 3 (who could forget), the basketball bench crew and of course the best lunch table ever (Christian the Italian soccer star, Chris Cool, Kostas Griffey Junior, Everybody loves Danny, Nuss the firestarter and of course Lorenzo who makes everything interesting). I would also like to thank my math teachers: T.N., M.M., B.W., M.D., B.M., K.B., J.W. (for making French interesting...). Finally, a big thanks to my Mom and Dad for everything they have done for me! Well, I guess it's off to the big leagues now, which will be a big change; no uniforms and no cold walks up Sherbrooke at 7 am. Ok, maybe it isn't that bad after all!

Mark Hoffman

Well, first and foremost, I guess I should congratulate everyone in my class on graduating from Selwyn. Saying the last 5 years have been interesting is probably an understatement. I am not going to play favorites in here and only put in a handful of initials because you people already know who you are. What I am going to take away from this place? Good question, come back in a few years. And lets not kid anyone here, we all know how you guys will remember me.... Kleenex®, paper and the guy in the "trash can." Oh yes, and feel free to call me whatever you want: Jack, Boh, Telle, Mark, Oscar.... doesn't bother me. Well that's about it, not much more to say so I'll just wish everyone good luck in the future and leave it at that.

Philip Hospod

Hmmmm.....How fitting to be writing the grad quote the night before its due. Well at least its in the spirit of my stay here at Selwyn. The 11 year experience was interesting and interrupted. Such great memories, obviously more than I'll remember in one night, so why litter this page with initials or fragments of memory? Who will ever forget the emotionally devastating loss to 7 players, the incredible sport trips, the final championship rugby season, the almost religious recess soccer experience, or even the nutty rafting trip. Poker nights, grads, Spring Balls, friends, we had it all and let's never forget that. I want to thank my mother for always supporting me. We couldn't have made it without each other. Finally, Sarah, thank you for making the last year and a half the best ever. I love you. There's just one more thing that I want to say as a message to everyone...ya gotta get crazy. -Flip Out-

Andrew Johnston

A long trip. And it's just about over. Endless thanks to my friends, parents, siblings, cousins, godparents, teachers, and coaches who have helped me along. You all made the often dreary and dull days of the past 11 years worth it. I can never repay what you have done for and given to me. I'm happy that I came to Selwyn and endured it all, but now I'm glad to be moving on. In time maybe... To the class of '99: you're a great group of people, and I'll miss you. Stay in touch.

"I'll be seeing you in all the old familiar places"

David Knecht

I am somehow relieved after all this, now, I've seen the worst. I've made a lot of mistakes. Life is very much like a marathon; those who start off too quickly run out of breath before the first 10 kilometers. It's a long race and you have to pace yourself. My father told me that, and to him and my forever loving mother will I always be indebted to. If it wasn't for my father, I would have quit this game a long time ago. He is the essence of my thoughts and the soundness in my actions. And to my mother who was always there for me; her love extends far beyond what words could possibly imply. And so I say adieu, to my friends and to this school. May we meet again. The real world has got to challenge us. But when it does, I will succeed.

Robert Kurlender

Glasses Raised,

Teardrops fill my eyes as I write this note to all those I care about. Mommy, Daddy and Lisa you're my inspiration and I'd be nowhere without your support. I love you all very much. Gabe, I consider you my big brother... You've helped me get through some seriously rough times and you've always guided me in a positive direction. No words can express my gratitude. No actions can repay you for everything you've done for me. Dyke, I've known you since we were both in diapers. We've been through a lot together. Never change! When I'm not with my Jew Cra I'm usually Living! A Vida Loca with Bouc and Johnny. DJ Quicksilver, too many cherished memories I'll miss you. DJ Stop I'm honored that the 16 yr. drought ended at my house. Was it second then first or third then first? Clubbing'ra, we had sick times together. Never forget!!! Muff Seems like yesterday we used to rock the show. We've been brass since day one. Kate, Baby Baby Tell Me Wassup!!! You know I love you sexy. Respect to my boys and girls who've come and gone over the last 3y.curs. ASG, WASP, JG, JS, ME, CW, DN, DM, CFCM, BT, GK, RS, HYD, RC, LBS, ABB, SR, DS, RY, MK, JAB, HO, MA, MY, NR, JF, JP, FM, OB, KB, JM, SD, NM, KN, AB, MB-and all my JWS. LOTS O' LUV. LeChaim-2 LIFE.

Simon Ludgate

Life at Selwyn has never been easy for me, that anyone could tell. Why, not even I can figure out. Well, it looks like it's over now, so I'll stop wondering about it. Still, amid the chaos, several pleasant memories will remain with me: those of the cheerful Downey brothers, the understanding Dr. Harker, and tolerant B. Montgomery. Thanks go out to B. Glasspoole and C. Rasmussen for surviving two years of me, and to P. Shannon for putting up with my 'golf spirit'. Greetz to my buddies (if you understand the Z, then you're in this group). Oh, and I should thank my pals at InsomniaX, but they'll never read this... Saving the best for last, I'll never be able to thank my mentor enough: Brad Moffat. He's the only person I may ever have an intelligent conversation about aliens with. He's the only person who'll ever trust me enough to place an active x-ray gun in my hands. He's the only person who's given enough energy to grasp my rapt attention and unleash talents I myself did not know existed. He's the only person who puts so much emphasis into a "That's so cool!" Gaylen Della out. Cya!

Ned Maloney

And there was Matty to be my influence and Charles for Monday morning New York stories and Jon to be asleep or laughing and Mike for late night homework and gr. 4 and Alex with our astronomy club and Adam to be the other race for height (I lost) ...and more - arguments with Kostas and the play with Paul Hogan and hiking ADK with Tim and more laughs with Justin and five homes with Nuss and Hydra dams with Phil O. and sexy pics with Gurinder and back seat of gr. 8 with Walker and gr 7 profiles with Eitan and the stock with Cheung and EVA days and gr. 6 weekends with Chan and phone calls with Colin and turkish baths with Olivier and curling with Russell and 3 ups in the play with James and tekno in physics with DJK and sailing with Theo and fishing with Tommy and laughs with Seth and F-3 stories with Jason and Broccoli with Robbie and fixityourself with Cameron and PI thoughts with Sammy and common room with Cosmo and Ottawa gr. 1 with Andrew and risk with SanG and poetry with Danny and fantasy with Simon and Nintendo and fishing with Ilasan and bench stories and luck with Panofsky and prestigious sass with Liam and 50 years of lung disease with Wisenthal and great times with Chiller and Marie my first love and I remember and teachers and teachers and teachers and this is my life's status quo.

Chris Maughan

Though I am trying my very best to prepare for my departure from Selwyn, I only find myself wanting to stay longer. This institution has taught me much, and these lessons of which I speak are not solely confined to the realm of the classroom; I have learned many which have nothing to do with the subjects I take. For that, I am truly grateful. Thanks to all my teachers, who have each influenced me in some way, but particularly to Ms. Palko, for the ludicrous amount of time she has devoted to helping me debate, to Mr. Nicoll, for helping me develop a love for literature, and to Mr. Govan, for two excellent seasons of soccer and for convincing me to try rugby. Second, to the class of 99: thank you all, especially the cool table (but also the few who didn't sit there--like Seitan), for being such a great group. I hope we all keep in touch, no matter where we end up. Three of you I'd like to give extra-special thanks to: Alex, for always helping me deal, Dave, for being the friend anybody would want, and Josh, for years of stupid (but hilarious) jokes.

"I hid you farewell, arrivaderchi, sayonara, and all that sorta jazz."

Duncan McEntyre

I am finished, finally. I want to thank: Jamie Deitner (for everything from mags to howling!), Ad (you taught me how to play the guitar, I'll always be your boy), Ball, Al & Al, Huff, Shultz and others, J. McMillan, Simplicio, K.K. Biggs and Nancy AC (you guys made it fun). Wearing, Nicoll, Shannon you men make Selwyn what it used to be. Mum, Dad, Pat and Pete, thanks. Anne, Paul, Pipa thanks. Michele, you made my last year my best, (I love you girls). Lunch, Rafting, Macleans, Europe, Stratford, NY, Boston, the hand and B+er. I thank you guys for easing this trip. I remember: My back yard, Dave Matthews concerts, U2 concert, JB 007, Paint ball, Stop signs (MDG!). To all who made this fun: I had a blast! To all who made it miserable: No, I'm sorry. I'm going but, I'll be back boys. A lot of people with a lot of support helped me through SHS; I hope I make you all proud. Thanks again.

First and foremost, I'd like to thank my partner in crime, Tigerlily. Keep rockin' the mike! To my dawg...Jay, keep on playing Tori. Don't worry, you'll be famous someday, I swear. PUSSEW!! LO, biker babe of the first order. PF, keep watching DAYS. SP, thanks for being such a good friend. Lolita, thanks for all the tea and homework help. I'll never forget Tim Horton's with Tigerlily's shoes. To the Nelsons, thank you SO much (will we ever have good luck?). CC, stop doing all your french homework! Madame Werbiski, merci pour tout, je ne vous oublierai jamais. Mom, thanks for putting up with me. I don't know how you did it, but thanks. Dad, Alex, Kayla, Steph, Joanna, Nana, Papou: much love. To all my fellow grads, best of luck in the future, but keep one thing in mind on your way to the top:

"They smile in your face,
But all the while they want to take your place,
The backstabbers."
-Li'l Kim

Theo McLaughlin

Given the excessive length of most of my Selwyn essays, I don't know if I'll fit everything into 200 words. Here's my best shot. First, thanks to Mom, Dad and Matt for helping me through 1 years at SPB. Among classmates: HM, SL, PW, DW, MS for being so entertainingly geeky; my Public Speaking brethren: arms: ABD, CM, SW, MBn, RM (Grade 10); C&C and OD for our continuous ideological disputes. (I'm still right, by the way...) Also everyone else among the students I really ought to mention. And among faculty members: BW, TJN, RN, BM, BM, CR for putting up with me as long as you did in various subjects; PS your help with writing and for being so relentlessly cool; and, of course, KKB for all your coaching, nitpicking, and simply for retaining your sanity in the face of having to deal with me, a feat I would not be able to accomplish myself. Last, but never least, Lisa for everything. So, I depart Selwyn House with these words:

"One sweet dream

Pick up the bags and get in the limousine
Soon we'll be away from here

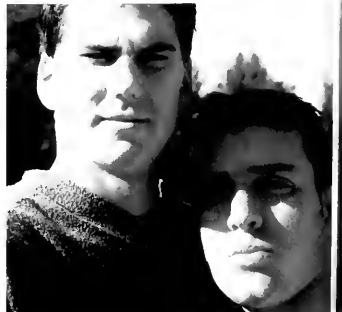

Step on the gas and wipe that tear away."

—The Beatles

Justin McManus

It's been a long 11 years with its fair share of ups and downs. I can still remember the days when I was one of the smallest in the school and it seemed as if I would be there forever until I reached grade 11. There is much for me to be thankful for and a lot of people to thank. First the Selwyn boys: AJ, DM, MB, ASG, RK, TS. I couldn't have done it without you through the years. My parents without whom none of this could have been possible. MD, be good. Can't forget biggie and CS. Of course, last but not least, is my boy: thanks for being there ABB, MEXICO! The girls: CP, MV, CD, AM, we had some crazy times. To the most important girl to me, RW, thanks for being the first one out there for me. I love U. I think I have learned things at Selwyn that maybe I don't realize now but will some day. A couple of staff members that went out of their way: PL, CB, MM, PS, BW, TJN, KB, thanks for not letting me quit. To my lifer friends: MO, CW, NM, thanks for your support throughout the incident. I'll never forget it. Remember how important it is to live life to the fullest and try to laugh with everything you do, teletoon, to JA for laughing every time.

Christian Meguerditch

When I wrote the entrance exam to Selwyn eleven years ago, my admissions was based on drawings and I drew a box. Eleven years later, I still haven't learnt how to draw a box properly, but I have been able to fill it with fond and vivid memories that I will cherish for the rest of my life. To mom, I owe you my life and am forever in debt for my belligerent way! Dad and Mima, keep me on the noble path to fulfillment; I still haven't forgotten, Caroline, Lennon and depots! CP+DN thanks for getting me through the year. For all the times we chilled a la Chris: "b"rs for the bears." To the Lunch Crew: CP, DN, LB, JN, KA, RE, quick hands-shotgun! AB; last minute Geo, JM; Monday nights. Common room chillage was key. Spring Ball x3, Cotillion x3, Grad x3, Mardi Gras = Whose yo Daddy! Sr. Soccer final four: take a lesson, Halifax and the hicks, GMAA Rugby Champs '98! Notorious recess: PIL, AZ, AA; you boys made the game more interesting. Viva Italia Novanta, Senior Jazz: SJ, Dunc, Dave, Masi; thanks for jamming. NYC, Boston, Cabaret. To my BAND, MR.AY,DD; late night jams and burns; behind Freddie's, Edgefest '97 + Battle of the Bands, Muchachos crew, summer '97, especially Mike and Pat. Cork, Youthfest, Youth Champs and long nights in K-town and Pita Pit. A final thanks to all those who made a lasting impact on me and changed my life forever! "Il faut cultiver son jardin" - Voltaire

In the words of Pierre McGuire from CJAD, "WOW!". I reflect on all my years at Selwyn and select some memories from the storage compartments in my head. Great soccer times like: Halifax '98, GMAA Champs '98, Gr.7 Vancouver U-13. Classroom antics: Gr.8 french class and Mme.Smith, "uhhh Mm, your dress is on backwards!". Student Awareness Gr.9 where RW was UNaware we had class. This grad note is also directed towards G.Dowd, and his keeping track of how many snowballs I threw in the year and how there was always a seat reserved for me in his or you could say, my, office. Recess soccer, Gr.3-11, "on the wall for soccer". Patented moves: My lefty blast over onto Argyle, A.A's butt bump. Gr.10 math class with Mr.Bain and his daily umm, "advice" for J.T. Gr.11 math class chants, Mr.Koherman, Sweaty Pits, panama, and humpty dumpty. Thanks to all teachers, including K.A.P.S. Molson's favorite spokespersons (Downey & Downey), B.M. and of course D.C. for telling us stories of your lawn instead of doing math from those @#!. Mikken books. Two great "rivalries", Me and Gam, Jason and O, IT WILL HAPPEN! Thanks to my parents and my brothers for their financial, moral, and transportation support. Who could forget, the police station garage illegal entry, D.P vs the desk hackrest in cinema class, and the A-team. To my fellow classmates, good luck in all your endeavours, even if it is at Marian-anastopoulos-apolis. Keep in touch and don't forget to remember me when you strike it rich.

Hasan Mirza

As I begin to gain a sense of appreciation for being at Selwyn House, my time there regrettably reaches its end. I suppose that happens at the end of any long experience; I am thus looking forward to the future. Thus I sincerely give thanks to everyone who has contributed to making the past eleven years what they have been; the pleasant memories are many.

Daniel Muroff

When I first came to Selwyn in 1994 I would have never thought that I'd be where I am now, five years later with too many memories to even remember. First I'd like to thank my parents: If it wasn't for you sending me here, I would have ended up a regular Jew wearing nothing but Diesel clothes and talking on IC Jew 24/7. Glad that didn't happen! Also my sisters, for their help and their collection of Coles notes. Thanks to all the teachers that I've had over the years: With all the work you've given us, you've made me the slacker I am today. To the many friends I've made along the way (too many to mention), thanks for the memories: grad, rafting, Stratford, spring balls, parties etc. Don't forget the race wars in math class, 15oukas carpet cleaner story, baseball team, intellectual lunch discussions, exciting Spanish classes! To all the ethnic groups: the Greeks, Italians, etc. you know who you are; don't deny your Jewish roots. But it's time for us to leave but we'll never forget the years we spent here. Good luck to everyone wherever you end up. The future awaits us...

Danny Naami

As the year comes to a close, there's only one thing that comes to mind. Two years at Selwyn, and I feel like I've known you guys forever. I'd like to thank my parents for their patience, devotion, and guidance through the best & worst times. You've given me the opportunity, and I feel like I owe you the world. Randy, you're the best brother anyone could ever have. Sandy, I'll always be there for you, make me proud. I love all of you. CP you mean the world to me. So many experiences, so many memories. Open house ladies=eh yeh. DN&CP=bebes=hambos a la invitation a cigar. CM, I'll never forget you. Thanks for the Italian lessons "Volio la testa," for making your house one of my homes...shotgun you extra bed=fundip. LB=No conference calls. Remember 6 bottles. To voy a romper el culo. Toks mackin' da ladies...hook me up next year with the Dawson's... KY-HH=physics skippage for common room chillage. Thanks to the lunch crew: CP, CM, LB, JN, RH, KA, for keepin' me alert...Operation Commando. Special shoutouts to A.S.G., D.M., J.M., ABB, TS, MB, AI, PH, RG, AA, J.G., SC, A.A., C.W., J.A., J.W., M.O., L.P., S.R., M.B., N.M., and those aforementioned for playing a relevant role in my life at Selwyn. Also, a special thanks to the faculty of Selwyn, especially RN, TN, AP, PG, RW, NAC, CM, BW, & MT. Highlights: Senior Basketball Bishops Champs '99, GMAA Senior Rugby Champs '99, CAIS Senior Soccer Final Four in Halifax '98, Stratford, Spring Balls, Senior Play, Rafting, and Grad.

It's been five years, and lots has happened to make my time at Selwyn a great experience. Bouce, we've partied pretty hard over the past few years. Robby, you've made me understand and appreciate Hampstead culture, we've shared some good times ensemble. Alex, a great friend since our days at Roslyn, we've had our fair share of fun moments together (Stowe '97, parties at your place, breakfasts with Charlie). Some of the best moments of the past five years include: Deck parties at 7, B-day bashes, 6 bottles (Bouc & Nams), late nite cruises in the Maxima (Robby), taxi sessions, post-clubbing parties at my place ("...Robby I think that mailbox wants to start with you..."), rafting, lunches, grad, rugby GMAA championship, and many more. Respect to my good friends Ned M, CP, Stutch, Nams ("Quot: As fu du bouc?"), Charlie, the NASP crew, and all the other boys that made these past five years amongst the best. Thanks to the greatest teachers around: TN, AMI, PS, JC, M&TD, JW, RG, KB, AW, RW, MM, PG. Last but not least, thanks to the family: Mom, Dad, Rob and Matts...I couldn't have done it without you guys supporting me all the way.

Boys....let's always remember the good times...

Philip Oliver

I have spent 9 years of my life at a place I have known as my school. Now we move on, maybe to never see each other again. Such is Life. I want to thank everyone who I have met over these 9 years. Thanks to everyone for great times. Nights out with the Boys: "Hey guys, it's Showtime!" Getting tossed out of Br. too many times to count. Ski Days (note to self: always look behind you while going backwards). For Spring Balls, Cast Parties, Grad Parties, and all the other ones. Arcila, just for being so nice. Dave's Family: for all the great trips. Henry, Coz, and Skip for just being great friends at any given time. Unforgettably: the cool table, for good times at lunch and everywhere else. For guidance and knowledge: K.B. B.G. B.W. C.R. T.N. B.M. C.B. M.D. T.D. and most importantly S.R. Last but certainly not least: Mum and Dad (for pushing me), Jim (for roughing it up), Bert (for style), Alex (for golf), as well as Wawi and Jaji (for moral support). Most of all I want to thank the grads and class of '99 for adding the spark to school life, and always keeping it interesting.

Goodbye, and may God be with you 'till we meet again.

Call it a selective memory, but I can't remember too many bad things about my eleven years spent at Selwyn. First I've got to thank mom and dad for knowing me well enough to send me to Selwyn and for always looking out for me. Thanks Ilana for backing me up and giving good advice. A few teachers also deserve recognition for teaching me above and beyond the call of duty: T.J.N. KB, C.R. and M.T. Finally, to my friends, don't owe a lot of these last two years to you. Thanks for pulling me out of the hole I dug for myself with my teenage angst shovel. Chuck, who would have ever thought we'd be as good friends as we are? Knowing that you're always there to bitch to, get my jokes, or just talk, means a lot. Eitan- we'll always have carpool. Thanks for being a pillar of insanity in my life. Azimov- my life would not be complete without the impressions, the voices, the spazing, the loud laugh, Rich, and Tucker Schmidt. Neddy- I guess we were both undiscovered countries. I'll never forget the March Break memories (the sleepover, the runaway metro, the act of heroism, the lecture, the Crash Test Dummies). Lee-am- I will happily accept your sass anytime you want shelter from the Waste Island. Stay as cool as you are and don't ever stop being an "a" hole. Chiller- Oh Darling. When did you start being so funny? Good luck next year in the U.S. We'll miss you. Seth- you were the best marching buddy I could have asked for. I'm glad we got closer. Sammy- I'll never forget the days of movies and Mr. steer. See you in L.A. next year. Alcutie- the second best roaster I know. Sachy- Things seem to have a way of working out for the best. Stay happy. And to the other boys who made coming to school fun and worthwhile: the W.A.S.P. crew, the Wiesenthal-Walker crew, the "A" team, G, Mr. Cheech, the Geno crew, and everyone else, I owe eleven great years to you.

As I sit here and wonder, about nothing and everything, one day b4 my last day of high school. I have to do this. Why? So I can read it 50 years from now and think "What was I thinking. My hair is a mess!" Well I came and I am far from conquering, and now I am leaving, and I have some 200 words to say how happy or sad I am about this event. To all the bad times...and the good ones in between. Thanx to everyone who was there to enjoy them. When I read this in a while I will surely have forgotten the first years, come to think of it. I can't right now so who cares. NEways, laughing with C.C. in Stratford, Halifax, rafting (the look on G.S. face when he saw that his tent had collapsed) these last few days of high school. I will have forgotten em all by the time I am 21

"I was crying to forget ya, and now I am dying to let ya" Aerosmith. Well NEways to all the grad's of '99, until we meet again.

High school forces one to become acquainted with 60 random people that they would otherwise probably never meet. I feel extremely lucky with the people who I have come to know through this institution and, despite the comments that I sometimes make, I feel honored to have been given the chance to attend with this group. I must thank everybody for accepting and tolerating my often quite offensive self. Some have tolerated me better than others and I feel that they should be mentioned. First of all, my family for all of their encouragement. Also, CM, CW, JA, NM, MD, JW, AA, and, this year, my "lab group" that consisted of SR, PH, and JG, but in recent weeks I have tried to stay on the DL. Every teacher has enriched me in some way but some I appreciated and some I did not. I must apologize to any individual who thinks that I feel any true hostility towards them because of my attitude and they must know that I do not. With that there is one thing left to be said: Stick a fork in this boys, it's done.

As I sit here reminiscing on the past five years of my life nothing terrible comes to mind. Selwyn has been my home for the past five years, it has taught me great morals on life and opened new doors for my future. It has also brought me many friends and memories that I will forever cherish. I would firstly like to thank my parents for enduring my stubbornness and for staying by my side throughout this exciting ride. To my sis, all I have to say is that I luv u and that the future is bright. I would also like to thank all the teachers that I am forever in debt to for teaching me how to survive in this turbulent world. Now here comes the fun part, I would like to give a phat shout out to my 2 boyz DN and CM for sticking by my side for better or worse, for supplying a house to sleep at, for all of our ya'ya'uh'uh, and for all those pre going out rumbles, u boyz are my heart and soul. 2 our fine lunch table (DN, CM, LB, JN, KA, RH) for teaching me to always pay attention or else life would be full of work. 2 da clubbing crew (DN, LJ, RK) aka da mucking crew aka my boyz. To the WASP crew u know I luv u guys even though ethnicity rule. A shout out to my boy JM or cuol who always supplied me with comedy. Memories Grad 99, 3SB, 99 Rugby Champs, Carlo's, Play and Duncies? All of u have made a impact in my life and I thank u all and remember Make Luv Not war! Peace Out!!! JJJ

Could it be? My four year stint at Selwyn has come to an end? Indeed, 30 years from now, when I open my 1999 yearbook and look at this very grad quote, I will want to remember all the good times and all the people who made this experience so wonderful. Firstly, I would like to thank my family for their unending support. You guys rule! Now, I would like to thank all the teachers by whom I have been taught. I will not name names, you all had an impact on my career at Selwyn. Last but not least, I would like to thank all my friends: JW(Who?, What? Where?), SW(I love French?), RF(Fish Push?), HB(I hate cable?), CM(I'm not Wrong!), PD(I have a question!), DC(Search and Destroy!), AD(King of Monitors!), CC(Hell is a hot place!), and all the others, you made Selwyn special! Keep in touch! It is time I step out of the comfort of Selwyn, into the real world!

The dilemma: do I try to sum up five years of my life in 200 words of cryptic abbreviations and strings of initials, or...What else is there? We spend some of the best years of our lives being processed through the system, trying to leave behind something indelible, to etch our names in the wall, and it all comes down to this: sitting in front of a computer grasping futilely for words. A wise man once said: "Forget the words. Find the meaning and the rest will come." I guess five years of Selwyn has taught me something after all. What I really want to do is write a message, a time capsule to myself in ten, or twenty, or fifty years when I dust off the old yearbook to revel in my former glory! Rugby Champs, Wrestling 2x). Here goes: Seth, take it easy. Don't let things get you down. Have fun. Don't take yourself too seriously. It's ok to fail, you'll learn from it. Remember me.

To everyone who has shown me who I am and who I'm not: MO my alter ego, the Peons, the PERfects. Significant adults: KB, PS, BH, BM, BG, PL, JW, RM, MT, BB. Most of all, I need to thank you, Mom. You are the strongest person I'll ever meet. I love you.

Gurinder Samrai

With 200 words I simply cannot express my profound thanks for everything that Selwyn House has given me over the years. My six years at Selwyn have been long and arduous, but they have given me innumerable benefits. From Selwyn, I will remember great teachers that have had a passion in teaching me and I thank them (Mr. Glasspoole, Mr. Moffat, Mr. Colin Boyle, Mr. Williams, the Downey brothers, Mr. Phillips, Madame Bassemussen, Mr. Shannon and Dr. Harker). Over the years, I have gained a deep knowledgeable background in various fields of study and I can certainly say that I will miss the positive learning atmosphere of Selwyn. I am eternally grateful for Selwyn for playing a role in the shaping and developing of my own individuality. Thanks to all the friends and students for making the Selwyn experience the more worthwhile. Grad, Robotics, Cast Party, Play, Spring Ball were all but some of the Selwyn moments I will never forget. Thanks Mattie O for all the great laughs. Thanks to my parents for enduring the hardships and supporting me. Looking towards the future, I can definitely say that I will miss Selwyn and good luck to all 99 grads, keep in touch.

Alexandre San Gregorio

Must pack up and say farewell to Selwyn. I can't think of a better time to leave: I'm ready. I've grown so much in both senses in the past 5 years and have many people to thank. First of all, thanks to all the teachers I've come across, you deserve more credit than you receive. Next the boys: AJ, DM, JM (it just doesn't feel right), JN, TS, MR, RK, ABB, we've had some great times together and many more to come. Of course my fam, Mom and Dad, love you, $50k well spent (look at it as an investment Dad), Franco for the timely advice, and Giulia for keeping me away from my books; I needed the breaks. Cheers to the good memories: pilgrimages to Kim's, the Field in October, hockey trips, Stratford-Iley guys, just chill, AJ's basement, rafting, grad, the roast with MO (best under pressure), rugby city champs (so sweet), deck parties at 737 with LB, RK, JN (3 gnos) Respect!, late night Risk sessions with my other boys MO/Toukulation was so my ideal, CW, JW, NM, JA, AA: "The Ukraine is weak!" I will leave you with some words of wisdom:

"A Jedi must have the deepest commitment, the most serious mind."

I've been here since grade 4 and I still remember many of the things that I did in that class, and in nearly all the classes to follow. Many of my fondest memories find their cradle here. I'd like to thank in particular NM who's companionship remained unbroken when times were good and when times were really bad; the gang at my lunch table for well being you; CABD, Fatty, and all the other friends I've made here I just can't name you all! Keep in touch guys! Oh, I can't forget all my teachers (especially KA, for being there). "Suidheachadh gu math truagh gus an coinninn sinn!"

Eleven great years as Selwyn-years that will be remembered. Memories of la ferme, Arundel, Stratford, rafting, and grad will stay with me. To all of my teachers during my stay at Selwyn I am grateful. Thank you to TD for all the fun in physics and pursuit, CR pour avoir réussi rendre le français amusant, RN-I made the connections in geography, BW-I thoroughly enjoyed your class as well as your humor! Thank you to MB for all the nating club trips, they were great. JM and BB thank you for having dedicated our time and coaching us to the level of City Champions. It was greatly appreciated. To my friends and classmates, I wish the best of luck. It is now time to move on to Marianopolis as my days at Selwyn have come to an end. I am glad to be moving on, but I will not forget my stay here. Congratulations to all of the graduating class of '99.

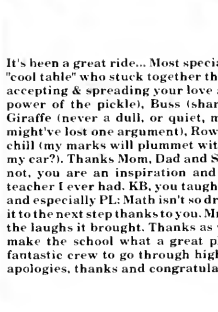

Peter Szilagyi

My 3 years at SHS have been the best years of my life and I have many people to thank for this. Thank dad for sending me to SHS, and mom for all the support. Thank you to all of my outstanding and dedicated teachers including CB, BG, BM, CR, PS, and BW. Special thanks to: K. Biggs, J. Martin, R. Nincheri, G. Rocheleau, B. Moffat and the Downey Bros. To my friends, for the good times: Cam, Russ, DJK, Mike, S. Walker and especially Cheung (the head of wisdom), Desmo (thank for summer trips and paintball), CABD, C. Maughan, Gundar, Pat and my best bud out of school, Andrew. Here are a few special highlights: Curling (thank team for making our victory possible), rowing, robotics (we finally won!) spring hall, and parties. We have the largest and best grade ever to graduate so let's keep in touch. I would like to leave everyone with a quote that my curling skip said to us before every game, "Have the time of your life while winning." The second part of the quote applies mostly to competitive sports, but the first part is something that SHS gave me and that we should always make sure we're having no matter where life brings us.

Jason Tsoukas

A daunting task stands before me...compressing a decade of incredible memories into one small cube that has come to represent my life. I have a vague recollection of my first day of school. A small boy filled with determination enters a new school. The head master towered over me as he extended his arm to shake my hand. "welcome to Selwyn House". Little did I know the impact that this institution and the numerous friends I have had along the way would have on me. Memories such as drag, rafting, spring balls, parties, sports tournaments, all nighters, great friends, great teachers, the carpet cleaner incident, French classes with m. smitt and visiting the P.M are some of the many memories that will stay with me forever. I would like to thank my parents for their tireless devotion. Believe it or not, it is greatly appreciated. There have been humps on the road but I could not have asked to be part of a better and more united class. As I will clutch the handle on the door of Selwyn House, my house, one last time I will go out to face the world with fire in my eyes and a smile of gratitude on my face.

Sam Walker

It's been a great ride... Most special props to my longtime buds at the "cool table" who stuck together through thick and thin: Cosmo (keep accepting & spreading your love and get cable), Chuck (harass the power of the pickle), Buss (sharp tongue for a little one), Josie Giraffe (never it dull, or quiet, moment with you), Mahogany (you might've lost one argument), Row (stay away from the bobcats), So-chill (my marks will plummet without you) and Cammy (can you fix my car?). Thanks Mom, Dad and Sis for being there, BM, believe it or not, you are an inspiration and a mentor. TJN, you are the best teacher I ever had. KB, you taught morality, not just english. BG, AL and especially PL Math isn't so drab when you're around. BW, I made it to the next step thanks to you. Mr. Cude, thanks for my first year and the laughs it brought. Thanks as well to all my teachers at SHS; you make the school what a great place it is. Class of '99 you were a fantastic crew to go through high school with. A new era begins so apologies, thanks and congratulations to all of you. Cheers!

Charles Wasserman

I'd like to start off, in true Boys 2 Men-Backstreet Boys fashion by thanking God, my family.....and Bacon, Maple Leaf preferably. For those of you who don't know me this was a joke, no offence to Phil Oliver or to my semitic counterparts. You know, I really find it hard to do justice to eleven years of schooling interfering with my education in 200 words of meaningless prose, so I'm not even going to try. To all my teachers, you know who you are and you know you'll miss me. To those who deserved it I won't, but to the others, I will apologize for being a pain, but remember, it was all in good fun—sometimes. Other times it was a deliberate attempt at making you feel small and worthless ha ha ha! (evil laugh). Anyways, thanks to the Swingers (NLAAR, JAJ, JWP, JPEY), Nuss, Rob, Al, Phil II, Christian and the rest of jr. II for good times. Thanks to Russ and TJN for making it fun (former) and interesting (latter), you both kept me awake. Ms. Biggs, I underestimated you and for that I'm sorry, you're great. Thanks to la familia for making me crazy, in a good way, I hope. Peace to Mr. Cheech. Anyways, I'll leave you with a little Tidwism:

"Truth is the most valuable thing we have. Let us economize it."

We parted like it was 1999... Sorry, I just had to say that. Anyways, seven years at Selwyn House have finally come to an end. I'll try my best to condense my life into a small little ball of typewritten emotion on this page: 1st of all, thanks to my family: Mum + Dad, you were there when the decisions got too big for me to handle myself. To the 2 schmucks, I love you bros. You guys can be my punching bag whenever you want. Memories: lunch-table shenanigans, orientation at Rouge River, Spring Ball X3, Grad, chillage at the stairs, cast parties X3, Rugby city champs '99, Europe Buggy, Stratford. To the Swingers: Bones, Chuckles, Yoni, C, Mattyo, Noddy, Liam, I love you guys and I'm not ashamed to say it. Respect. Thank you's also go out to all the staff at SHS that have earned my respect: TJN, PS, KB, MM, CR, CB, BM, BG, NAC, BW, BH. Zaidas I wish you could be here now to see me graduate, but I guess that's life. I'm always thinking of you. I'm hesitant to put a period at the end of these random ramblings as I fear it will put an end to my life up to this point. All I can say is good times were had by all. Boys, "There's a gude time coming!" — Rob Roy. Goodbye to SHS but never to the class of 1999. I'll see ya when I see ya.

In the fall of 1994, I walked up the stairs of Selwyn as a short and confused boy. Five years later, I descend those same stairs, slightly taller yet all the more confused. First, I must thank my mother and father, who forced me to attend the first three months of grade seven, and promised it would get better. Mr. Nicoll, although I will NEVER love the Red Wings, you have taught me to love both history and literature. Madame Rasmussen, may our trails cross once more. Tom and Mike Downey, slap another bad boy on the grill for me, eh? Selwyn has been a worthy life experience because it has allowed me to spend eight hours each day goofing off with my buddies. Sam and Chris, who could forget the infamous golf shot off the hydro pole? Henry, may we drop 40 footers together in Harmony Bowl five years from now, when we both decide to pack up and move westward. Buss, we will someday travel the world together! Suhil, you are without a doubt the best friend anyone could have. Finally, to all the hikers, ginns, jocks, retros, preps, computer programmers and outcasts, remember one thing:

"It ain't over yet McGavin. The way I see it, we've only just begun." — Happy Gilmore

Excerpts from Johnny Deep's "The Complete Geek"
 I found myself in the firewall with someone who, as my special agent training had taught me, was of the opposite sex. Now it's not like I've never been with a girl. OK actually, that's exactly what it's like. And you know, it's pretty tight in those firewalls, because they're only meant for one. When you squeeze two in there, well, you almost can't help touching something. At this point, the firewall demanded the code. I looked at her. She didn't say anything. So I started explaining like mad.
 "Hey, I'm sorry. It was an accident, I promise."
 She looked at me with the most penetrating eyes I had ever seen. I smiled. Her look seemed to soften, and then she said:
 "17014118360469231731687303715884105727"
 "The correct prime number" the firewall said. Just before the doors opened, she looked at me even more softly, and smiled. Then she said something I didn't understand. "You are pretty cute, for a geek."
 So now I knew that they meant - What everybody was always talking about - The internet really is a place for love.

3 years... It's been 5 years already. I really can't believe it. When I look back, I can still remember the first day at Selwyn. Life at Selwyn has brought me tremendous joy... more joy than I can ever express. So as I graduate I look back now and I say, "Geez, this was one hell of a school." Now I take the opportunity to thank a few people. GD and Neb, you've always been there to share good time and laughs. Peter, thanks for listening. Mike, you beast you! Shouts go out to, DJK, AD, HML, CC, CC and GS. And to all the teacher that have ever taught me, "Thank You" BM, BM, TD, MD, PS and KB, you have given more than I could ever ask. For the 3 years I've been in Robotics I've had a blast, kudos to the entire science department. I've loved the extra work and all those long night were more than worth it. As for curling, let's just say that I want to thank Mr. Badger and Mr. Martin from the bottom of my heart. To the class of '99, we really should keep in touch 'cause we are the best!

Eitan Yane

After 5 years I find myself sitting in front of a computer screen trying to remember all the people that helped me along the way. (If I forget anyone, you can come up to me anytime and I'll give you a big hug) So here goes: I thank my parents for their unbelievable trust in me, my Buds Matt, Chuekles, Gune Anderson, Chilner, Liam, Spaz, and Neddy. Also, to David "MacGyver" C., the government won't let you build that bomb with the toothpicks and bubblegum, it's too dangerous. Thanks to my hacker buds (HB, RF, JW, CM) without whom recess would be a bore. Thanks to AJ, I couldn't have survived French class without you. Finally, to the girls in my life, (Lauren S., Sarah M., Sachy, Mom - but I already thanked her) thanks for the memories. To everyone else, thanks where thanks are due.

My eight years at Selwyn House have finally come to an end! It's hard to believe that I'm graduating at last... As little as a year ago, I never even thought about leaving this school for good, but the day has come and it is time to move on. In retrospect, SHS has been a very positive experience, and the memories contained within these years will always remain strong for me. For making my senior school education interesting, meaningful, and enjoyable (most of the time) I'd like to thank all of my teachers, especially PS, KB, BH, BM, CB, RG, BG, AL, PL, NAC, and CR. Special thanks also go to my parents for their constant love, support, and guidance. To the other grads of 99, good luck and I look forward to meeting again someday. Well, my 200 words aren't up yet, but that's all I have to say.

The Selwyn House Varsity Football program started the season off very well in 1998. It all began in summer training camp, two weeks before the academic year commenced. Head coach Mike Maurovich and coaches Tom Downey and Matt Kerner coordinated the offense, while Mike Downey coordinated our small, but powerful defense. Throughout the season, many close exciting games were played, however, a lack of practice resulted in disappointment. The offense was led by starting quarterback Chris Politis, runningback Alex Brosseau and slotbacks Liam Paull and Justin McManus. The defense was led by the three inside linebackers; Tristan Schulz, Andrew Johnston and Josh Wilner. A few other players who led the defense were defensive backs Alex San-Gregorio and Duncan McEntyre.

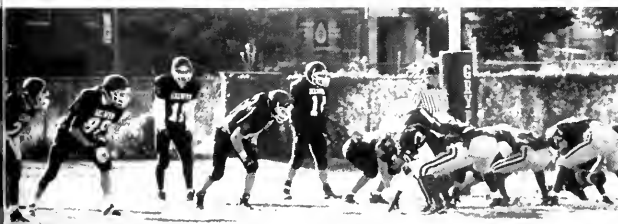

Next year will be a different story, with many returning veterans such as Jerome Miller, Tristan Schulz and Ben Spencer. Two of our young prospects will also be returning, Marc-Antoine Brosseau and Faris Karim. New players from the Bantam Gryphons will also be moving up. With these athletes and many more stars, next season will be one to remember!

This year, the Selwyn House Bantar football team posted a fair record. The Gryphons, led by quarterback Trevo Shannon, runningback Joe Mekhael, an hard hitting inside linebacker, Ma Desmarais, managed to upset the first place LCC Lions. This victory was extremely important because it raised their spirits heading into the Wild Card. Although the Gryphons lost in the playoffs in a nail-bite against Loyola, they came out of the season more experienced and both physically and mentally tougher. Much of their success is credited to their great coaches Steve Mitchell and Colin Boyle. The two should look forward to the next season, for rookies Torre Mitchell, Dominico Brunetti and Chris Rochon return to the lineup next year, thus making next season in '99 more promising.

The Baby Gryphons of the Selwyn House Grade 7 program were a dominant force this year. Tom Spencer was an effective quarterback and also a dominant defensive lineman. The Baby Gryphons are ready to take on a "New Frontier": Bantam Football.

The Selwyn House senior soccer team started the year with high expectations for the season. After some convincing early victories the team was on a roll. At mid-season, the team travelled to Halifax for the Canadian Association of Independent Schools National Tournament. After a slow start and a loss to Royal St. George's of Ontario the team picked up their game and made it all the way to the semi-finals. Upon returning to the regular season, the team won all their games except two painful losses to L.C.C. It all came down to a game with Royal West, a win was needed to advance to the playoffs. Disappointingly, the game ended in a deadlock 1-1 tie, not good enough to keep Selwyn's playoff hopes alive. Special thanks to Coach Alfie Paoletti for a great season and Coach Peter Govan who helped out in Halifax.

SOCCKER

The Selwyn House Midget soccer team had a hard time this year. With few returning starters, the team struggled through their regular season winning only two games. Surprisingly, the team slipped into the playoffs for a first round game against Lauren Hill Academy. But all hopes were shattered in the quarter-finals with a heart-breaking loss. In all, the season proved to be a learning experience. Many thanks to Coach Peter Govan.

The Selwyn House Senior hockey team entered the season with high hopes for an improvement over last year. With the addition of forwards Tristan Schulz, Roderick Leider, Josh Mitchell, Mike Gross, defencemen Chris Brown and Trevor Parekh, and goaltender Conrad Harrington things looked promising. Returning veterans Alex San Gregorio, Justin McManus, and Josh Wilner formed a strong nucleus. Due to a labour dispute at the Verdun Auditorium, we were forced to make our way out to Brossard to practice and play our home games; reducing our already scarce practice time. A highlight of the season came at our own tournament on the South Shore where we beat MacDonald Cartier (8-2) and although we lost to powerhouse Northwood (4-7), our play was much improved. Many thanks to coaches Michell and Nicoll for a fun season.

This year's Bantam Hockey season proved to be more fertile than expected with a talented young team. Trevor Shannon and Chris Churchill-Smith returned for their second seasons and Patrice Roy a third-year veteran provided some true leadership. Our unrelenting yet productive attack was aided on many occasions by some tremendous individual efforts. Even though this year's team carried the weight of having the highest hopes in five years of winning the G.M.A.A. championship, we fared quite well. After many heartbreaking losses, our team was able to stick together because of its positive attitude. All in all, a memorable season.

The cross-country skiing season opened with many promising possibilities. With a record breaking snowfall in January, it seemed as if our season would be better than the last. Our large group, of many different skill levels, showed much enthusiasm and excitement. But as luck would have it, the snow soon melted away and so did our skiing season. It turned out to be even worse than last year. We did, however, manage to have one race. Alex Davis won gold in the Juvenile category by more than four minutes with David Cameron behind in second and Eitan Yane in fourth. Pablo

Durana came second in the Midget race while Julian Simonetta and Christopher Bryson fou, it out for fouth and fifth place respectively. Nicholas Tory finished third in the Bantam le while Arnold Engel came close behind in fourth and Daniel Maldoff in fifth. With the snow go we had to resort to another sport. Our cross-country skiing team soon turned into a broom t team. Thanks to our coaches Brad Moffat and Tom Downey for keeping this team with h spirits. This skiing season had its ups and downs, but all in all it turned out to be rather f

This year, the Selwyn Wrestling team was in the midst of a transition. The vast majority of our squad members were in Grades 7 and 8, with only a handful of veterans providing able leadership. At the GMAA finals, several of our athletes met with success. Thomas Hatzithomas, a rookie advanced to the consolation finals where he earned a fourth place ranking. Alex Hrycyk, placed fifth in his weight class. Najib Sallman and Lauren Storelli, also first-year wrestlers, placed fifth and sixth respectively. The team's hopes in the gold-medal round rested upon team captains Andrew Johnston and Seth Ross. In the final tournament of their GMAA wrestling careers, Andrew won the silver medal in a very competitive weight class, while Seth became city champion for the second straight year.

GMAA City Champions

This year was a very special one in Senior Rugby. After an early-season loss to LCC, 11-3, we dug deep and went on a four-game win streak battling our way to another shot at our rivals, and the team championship. In a hard-fought display of rugby skills, the Selwyn team won the final 10-7. Along the way, we also managed to pick up silver medals at the GMAA seven's tournament. The forwards were led by Alexis Asselin, who picked up the game so quickly and became a hard-running addition to our forwards; Seth Ross added baffling tackles and clutch steals in the scrum; Ben Spencer, who will be punishing the opposition next year; Josh Wilner, with leadership and bone-crushing hits. Our stellar cast of backs featured team captain, Andrew Johnston, who kept the team together with shrewd decisions; Sam Carsley, drop-kick specialist, Alex San Gregorio's smooth hands, Duncan McEntyre's taking the ball at speed, Alex Brûle-Brosseau's intensity and nose for the try line, Danny Naami's creative running patterns, Chris Politis and Christian Meguerditch for added threats and Philip Hospod's crucial kicks. Special Thanks to coach Peter Govan and Steve Barkman for valuable guidance throughout the year.

EXPERIENCE

THE INAUGURAL GRADE NINE GEOGRAPHY TRIP

This year, for the first time in Selwyn House history, the school sent the Grade nines on a trip to the Adirondacks. The trip, organized by Direct Bearing, lasted three days. The boys arrived at 7:00 P.M., and went to bed early. The next day, separated into five groups, they all climbed and descended a different mountain. The constant rain did not dampen their spirits as they marched through the rocky terrain. The following morning, the students participated in geographical activities and then set off towards Montreal. Overall, the grade nines enjoyed the trip which kick started the year.

GRADE 11

On Thursday, September 10, 1998, the Grade 11 class left Selwyn House as sixty-odd fresh-faced city-slickers, destined to return as hardened river wranglers. The buses left with excitement running high as everyone remembered the accounts of the trip by last year's graduates. Our Orientation weekend was held at the New World Rafting facilities situated in Hawkesbury, Ontario.

Upon our arrival we instantly settled in our tents and cabins, to commence our two days and two nights of white water excitement. Activities other than rafting, varied from rock-climbing and horseback riding, to mountain biking and sport-yaking. We then returned home on the bus, exhausted but with a sense of accomplishment. Special thanks to our tour guides and Selwyn staff involved for making this a pleasant and memorable experience.

DAY

DAY

Without the help of hundreds of volunteers, events such as the Fall Event would not be possible. Thanks to their efforts, the event raised almost $50 000.

Many known faces came out for the Founders' Day dinner reception. Mr. Jack Martin stands alongside Mrs. Harrington and Mrs. Harrington Sr..

Mr. Boyle remembers goodtimes with some former students at the reception. Many old boys returned to check on old friends and teachers.

SELWYN HOUSE ONCE AGAIN PARTICIPATED IN THIS YEAR'S CANADA FIRST ROBOTICS COMPETITION, WHICH TOOK PLACE ON SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1999 AT CENTENNIAL COLLEGE IN TORONTO, ONTARIO. PARTICIPATING IN THE CANADA FIRST NATIONAL ROBOTICS COMPETITION IS ALWAYS AN ALL-ENCOMPASSING TASK. NOT ONLY DID OUR TEAM HAVE TO BUILD A ROBOT, BUT WE ALSO HAD TO DEVELOP A WEB PAGE, PRODUCE A VIDEO/FIVE MINUTE VIDEO, AND CREATE A ONE HUNDRED PAGE BINDER WITH ALL OF THE DETAILS WRITTEN DOCUMENTATION. THE OBJECT OF THIS YEAR'S COMPETITION, DUBBED "ROBOCURL '99", REQUIRED THAT STUDENTS BUILD A ROBOT THAT HAD THE ABILITY TO PLAY A MODIFIED VERSION OF CURLING. SELWYN'S PERFORMANCE THIS YEAR WAS IMPRESSIVE, AFTER AN INTENSE WEEKEND OF COMPETITION, SELWYN HOUSE DEBATED A CUNNING TEAM REPRESENTING UNIONVILLE HIGH SCHOOL OF UNIONVILLE, ONTARIO, IN THE FINAL ROUND OF COMPETITION, TAKING HOME A WELL DESERVED FIRST PLACE FINISH. IN ADDITION TO THAT, WE ALSO HAD THE INCREDIBLE HONOR OF RECEIVING THE SPAR AEROSPACE / CANADA FIRST CANADARM AWARD, MOST CREATIVE STRATEGY AWARD, AND THE MOST INNOVATIVE ROBOT DESIGN AWARD. ALL IN ALL, ALL OF THOSE WHO PARTICIPATED IN THE PROGRAM HAVE ENJOYED IT IMMENSELY, AND THEY ALSO FOUND IT TO BE A VERY VALUABLE LEARNING EXPERIENCE.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT

"We should really have had that nipple ring put in professionally."

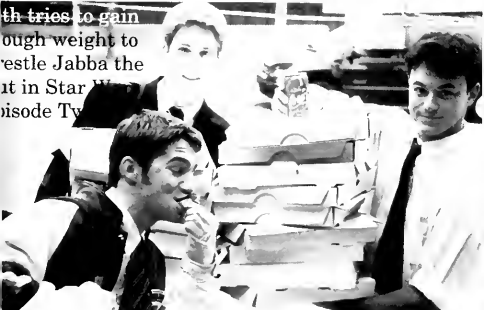

"What's the deal, I told the hairdresser to cut my hair like Demi Moore, not Dudley Moore!"

After being kicked out of weight training, Tristan gets desperate and starts using anything available.

He tries to gain enough weight to wrestle Jabba the Hutt in Star Wars Episode Two.
